

ARTICLE 5. CODE OF ETHICS¹

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 2.421. Policy and purposes.

- (a) General policy statement. It is the policy of the city that all city officials and employees shall conduct themselves both inside and outside the city's service so as to give no occasion for distrust of their integrity, impartiality or devotion to the best interest of the city and the public trust which the city holds.
- (b) Appearance of impropriety. Public service is a public trust. All city officials and employees are stewards of the public trust. They have a responsibility to the citizens of the city to administer and enforce the City Charter and city ordinances. To ensure and enhance public confidence in city government, each city official and employee must strive not only to maintain technical compliance with the principles of ethical conduct set forth in this article and in state law, but also to avoid the appearance of impropriety at all times.
- (c) This code of ethics has five purposes:
 - (1) To encourage ethical conduct on the part of city officials and employees;
 - (2) To encourage public service with the city;
 - (3) To establish standards for ethical conduct for city officials and employees by defining and prohibiting conduct that is incompatible with the interests of the city;
 - (4) To require disclosure by city officials and employees of their economic interests that may conflict with the interests of the city; and
 - (5) To serve as a basis for disciplining those who fail to abide by its terms.
- (d) This code of ethics is not intended to be used as a political weapon or to intimidate or embarrass affected persons. The officials charged with administration of this code of ethics shall administer it in a manner that avoids any such use of this code of ethics.
- (e) This section is intended only to set forth the policy and purposes for adoption of the San Marcos Code of Ethics; it shall not be cited, used, or considered by a citizen or by the ethics review commission as the basis of an ethics complaint filed against any officer or employee of the city.

State law reference(s)—Code of ethics, V.T.C.A., Local Government Code, § 171.001 et seq.

Sec. 2.422. Definitions.

In this article:

Benefit means anything reasonably regarded as pecuniary gain or pecuniary advantage, including any money, real or personal property, purchase, sale, lease, contract, option, credit, loan, discount, service or other tangible or intangible thing of value. Benefit includes a pecuniary gain or pecuniary advantage to any other person in whose welfare the beneficiary has a direct and substantial interest.

Business entity means a sole proprietorship, partnership, firm, corporation, holding company, joint-stock company, receivership, trust, unincorporated association, or any other entity recognized by law, including a nonprofit organization or governmental entity.

Economic interest includes a legal or equitable interest in real property, personal property, or intangible property, or a contractual right. Service by a city official or employee as an officer, director, advisor, or other active participant in a nonprofit educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization does not create for that city official or employee an economic interest in the property of the organization. Ownership of an interest in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities or other assets is not an economic interest in the securities or other assets unless the person in question participates in the management of the fund.

Employee means any person employed by the city, whether under civil service regulations or not, including those individuals on a part-time basis, and employees of an independent contractor that serve as a staff liaison to a city board or commission.

Immediate family means the spouse, children, brothers, sisters and parents of an officer or employee.

Officer or official means the mayor or any member of the city council and any appointive member of a city board, commission or committee established by ordinance, charter or state law on a permanent basis, and members of temporary boards and commissions.

(Ord. No. 2017-20 , § 1, 11-21-17)

Sec. 2.422.1. Ethics training required.

All members of the city council and appointive members of city boards, commissions, or committees established on a permanent basis by ordinance, the city charter, or state law, shall attend training regarding the San Marcos Code of Ethics and state conflict of interest laws during the first 30 days of their initial term of office. Ethics training provided by the San Marcos City Attorney's Office meets the requirements of this section.

(Ord. No. 2021-51 , § 1, 8-3-21)

Sec. 2.423. Prohibition against involvement in actions affecting economic interests.

(a) General rule. It is unlawful for a city official or employee to take any official action that he or she knows is likely to:

- (1) Affect an economic interest of:
 - a. The official or employee;
 - b. His or her immediate family member;
 - c. A member of his or her household;
 - d. An outside employer of the official or employee or of his or her immediate family member;

- e. A business entity in which the official or employee or his or her immediate family member holds an economic interest;
 - f. A business entity for which the city official or employee serves as an officer or director or in any other policy making position;
 - g. A person or business entity from whom the official or employee, or his or her immediate family member, has solicited, received and not rejected, or accepted any benefit or an offer of employment within the past twenty-four months; or
 - h. A person, business entity, or association from whom the official has received a campaign contribution in an amount exceeding $300.00. This provision does not apply to campaign contributions received prior to November 7, 2018. This provision does not apply in circumstances where four or more council members would be prohibited from voting on a matter.
- (2) Confer a benefit on the official or employee, or deprive the official or employee of a benefit, where the effect of the action on the official or employee is distinguishable from the effect of the action on members of the public in general or a substantial segment of the public.
- (b) Meaning of "affect".
- (1) In subsection (a)(1) above, an action is likely to affect an official's or employee's economic interest if it meets all of the following:
- a. The action is likely to have an effect on that interest, either positive or negative, that is distinguishable from its effect on members of the public in general or a substantial segment of the public.
 - b. The effect of the action on that interest is direct, and not secondary or indirect. However, the action need not be the only producing cause of the effect in order for the effect to be direct.
 - c. The effect on the interest must be more than insignificant or de minimis in nature or value.
- (2) In determining whether a person, entity or property is or was affected by a vote or decision, it will not be necessary to prove the actual existence or occurrence of an economic effect or consequence if the effect or consequence would be reasonably expected to exist or occur.
- (c) Recusal and disclosure. A city official or employee whose conduct would otherwise violate subsection (a), or a state conflict of interest law, if he or she took an action must abstain from participation in the action in accordance with the following:
- (1) Immediately refrain from further participation in the matter, including communications with any persons likely to consider the matter, such as any department, agency, commission or board of the city, from the time he or she discovers or reasonably should have discovered the matter triggering the recusal and until a decision regarding the matter has been made by the council, board or commission having final approval authority.
 - (2) Promptly file a form for disclosing the nature and extent of the interest triggering the recusal with the city clerk, if the person is an official, or with the person's supervisor, if the person is an employee;
 - (3) Promptly notify the person's supervisor of the nature and extent of the interest triggering the recusal, if the person is a city employee, so that the supervisor can reassign responsibility for handling the matter to another person; and
 - (4) Publicly disclose the interest triggering the recusal immediately after the agenda item has been called up for discussion or action, if the person is a member of a city board, commission, or city council, and leave the room while the board, commission, or city council is discussing or voting on the matter.

(Ord. No. 2017-20 , § 1, 11-21-17; Ord. No. 2018-37 , § 2, 9-18-18; Ord. No. 2018-39 , § 1, 10-16-18)

Sec. 2.424. Standards of conduct.

- (a) Standards for immediate family members. It is unlawful for an immediate family member to intentionally or knowingly:
- (1) Solicit, accept or agree to accept from another person any benefit that the member's relative, who is a city officer or employee, is prohibited from soliciting, accepting or agreeing to accept under state law;
 - (2) Misuse any official information obtained from the member's relative, who is a city officer or employee, to which the relative has access by virtue of the relative's office or employment and that has not been made public, in a manner prohibited as to the relative under state law; or
 - (3) Misuse, as defined in V.T.C.A., Penal Code § 39.01, any city property, services, personnel or any other thing of value belonging to the city that has come into the member's custody or possession by virtue of the office or employment of the member's relative who is a city officer or employee.
- (b) Representation and appearance at meetings. No city officer or employee shall knowingly:
- (1) Appear before the body of which the officer or employee is a member, as a representative for any private person, including the officer or employee or any immediate family member, or any group or interest;

 - (3) Accept other employment or engage in outside activities incompatible with the full and proper discharge of city duties or that might impair independent judgment in the performance of city duties; or
 - (4) Make a false statement of material fact at a public meeting.
- This subsection shall not be construed to deprive an officer or employee of the right to due process under the law, including the right to represent himself/herself in a court proceeding.
- (c) Representation by council members. No city council member shall knowingly represent any private person, including the city council member or any immediate family member, or any group or interest in any matter before any department, agency, commission or board of the city, except that city council members may represent their interests in their owner-occupied homesteads before a board, agency, commission or department of the city other than the city council.
- (d) Representation in municipal court. In any action or proceeding in the municipal court which is instituted by a city officer or employee in the course of official duties:
- (1) No city council member shall knowingly represent any private person other than himself or herself. If a city council member elects to have a trial in municipal court, the city council, without the participation of the affected city council member, will appoint a special judge to preside over the trial.
 - (2) No city officer or employee shall knowingly represent any private person other than himself or herself, including any immediate family member, or any group or interest.
- (e) Representation in land use and development matters. A member of the planning and zoning commission shall not knowingly represent the member or any other person, group or interest in any matter before the zoning board of adjustments involving land use or development, and a member of the zoning board of adjustments shall not knowingly represent the member or any other person, group or interest in any matter before the planning and zoning commission involving land use or development. This subsection does not apply to members representing their interests in their owner-occupied homesteads.

- (f) Prohibited use of city position. A city official or employee shall not use his or her position to unfairly advance or impede private interests, or to grant or secure, or attempt to grant or secure, for any person (including himself or herself) any form of special consideration, treatment, exemption, or advantage beyond that which is lawfully available to other persons. A city official or employee who represents to a person that the official or employee may provide an advantage or impediment to the person based on the official's or employee's office or position violates this rule.

Any person having an interest shall be ineligible for election as a city council member or appointment as a city employee, and any city council member or city employee who acquires an interest shall forfeit the office or employment. Any violation of this subsection with the actual or constructive knowledge of the city council member or employee shall render the contract voidable by the city manager or the city council.

- (b) In any action or proceeding in the municipal court which is instituted by a city officer or employee in the course of official duties, no former city employee shall, for a period of two years from the date of leaving city employment, knowingly represent any private person other than himself or herself, including any immediate family member, or any group or interest.
